Position Summary:

Make a difference for Montana's families and children by serving as an AmeriCorps member of Justice for Montanans with the Office of Child and Family Ombudsman (OCFO). OCFO responds to the requests of citizens who have concerns about children involved in the child protection system or in need of protection. OCFO helps educate and protect the rights of Montana families and children with both case specific and systems change interventions. Members will have the opportunity to assist with various OCFO projects with the support of friendly and encouraging staff members.

AmeriCorps members will uphold the goals of the Justice for Montanans Program by increasing access to justice for low to moderate income Montanans.

Specific Position Responsibilities:

- Provide information to citizens on accessing services from OCFO
- Provide legal resource information to citizens by telephone, mail, and outreach
- Assist citizens with the resolution of child protection-related issues
- Conduct a feedback survey with citizens and report findings to the Ombudsmen
- Learn ombudsman investigative techniques and use techniques to gather data and impartially review concerns
- Collect and track data on system trends and assist in investigating and reporting trends
- Help coordinate remedies with the ombudsmen, child protection staff, attorneys, and other agencies involved
- Assist with planning and implementation of statewide trainings and outreach
- Refer people to appropriate service agencies and partner organizations
- Assist in implementing and streamlining data collection and case management procedures
- Attend OCFO Child Fatality Review Panel meetings and Child Abuse and Neglect Review Commission meetings as appropriate
- Develop knowledge of Montana's legal system and legal information to share with client populations and other agencies as appropriate specific to child protection
- Develop and assist with program-wide outreach efforts as needed
- Build relationships, attend meetings, and provide trainings with partner organizations and other service agencies
- Maintain database with all contact, request, and critical incident information

- Attend trainings to broaden your knowledge of the principles of ombudsman office, the legal system as it relates to child protection, techniques for working with clients in crisis, and to learn more about important resource providers
- Perform other AmeriCorps-related duties such as reporting, timekeeping, and service projects
