Position Summary:

Make a difference for low-income Montanans and learn about the legal system as a member of Justice for Montanans serving with the Montana Legal Services Association. The Montana Legal Services Association (MLSA) is a federally and privately funded nonprofit organization that provides legal services to low-income people throughout Montana. This position will do regular intake and outreach but focus on supporting MLSA's Tribal Law Practice Group. The position may have occasional travel to Montana Indian Country. Supervisor for this position is the Tribal Law Supervising Attorney.

AmeriCorps members will uphold the goals of the Justice for Montanans Program by increasing access to justice for low to moderate income Montanans.

Specific Position Responsibilities:

- Support the Tribal Law Practice Group Supervising Attorney with case management, intake, mailing documents and letters to clients, and filings in tribal court
- Assist with managing MLSA's Indian Wills Project
- Draft wills for Native American clients and develop expertise in the American Indian Probate Reform Act
- Increase awareness of MLSA programs and services among Indian Country service providers with the aim of increasing referrals from service providers to MLSA
- Conduct outreach to Montana's Native population, both urban and Reservation-based
- Develop knowledge of tribal court systems and legal information to share with client populations and other agencies as appropriate
- Compile legal resources, forms, and information specifically for tribal members
- Support MLSA's general intake (the process of applying for help from MLSA) by doing intake appointments, helping call back clients, and doing the initial eligibility screening for clients with all legal issues and scheduling or referring appropriately
- Provide legal resource information to clients by telephone, mail, and outreach

- Serve as a LiveHelp navigator to provide remote assistance in finding legal information on MontanaLawHelp.org and other websites
- Expand outreach efforts for various projects such as the Veterans Stand Downs, Pride events and many more
- Attend trainings to broaden your knowledge of the legal system, techniques for serving clients in crisis, and to learn more about other resource providers
- Assist with the updating, maintenance, and expansion of MLSA and JFM websites and social media presence to provide legal information to people throughout Montana
- Perform other AmeriCorps-related duties such as reporting, timekeeping, and service projects

Minimum Requirements:

- Over 18 with a high school diploma or GED; college degree or equivalent work experience preferred
- A United States citizen, United States National, or legal permanent resident alien
- Ability to take initiative, handle multiple projects, track details essential to project completion, analyze information, and meet deadlines
- Strong ability to communicate effectively orally and in writing with diverse groups of people
- Demonstrate good interpersonal skills, public relations, and ability to network with professionals
- Demonstrate ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Ability to appropriately handle confidential information and willingness to sign a confidentiality policy
- Basic computer proficiency including Word and some knowledge of Excel and Power Point
- Passion for increasing access to justice and assisting low-income individuals
- A driver's license and personal means of transportation within the state of Montana are highly recommended
- Must pass a national service criminal history check due to contact with vulnerable populations
- Qualified individuals with disabilities and those from diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply. We provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals.

Benefits:

- Living allowance*
- Segal Education Award*
- Eligible deferment on qualified student loans
- Health benefits
- Child care assistant to qualified members
- Relocation allowance of up to $550 if the service site is 50 miles or more from current residence
